

Homegrown designers and artists in spotlight at D/Code

A bright and sunny weekend of March 17th and 18th witnessed a two-day luxury art and design exposition called D/Code held at the Four Seasons Hotel in Mumbai. A new, innovative platform conceptualized and curated by award winning architect Ashiesh Shah in association with the Times of India Group, the fair was the first of its kind in the subcontinent. For those who could not make it to the event, we offer you glimpses

By: Benu Joshi Routh

CORONUM ARMCHAIR (SNOW WHITE COLLECTION)

Scarlet Splendour will be launching exciting new collections at this year's Salone Del Mobile - Milan Design Week by renowned international designers - Italian maverick Matteo Cibic, Slovenian minimalistic Nika Zupanc and UK based flamboyant Artefatto Design Studio.

London based Artefatto Design Studio, have indulgently worked on the alluring Snow White collection, crossing the boundaries between art, design and luxury fashion, in order to create a unique and personal vision for the collection.

Scarlet Splendour's curated collection of alluring chairs, rugs and artefacts crafted with the finest sheepskin found in all the realms, are held by golden frames. This is what it must feel like to waft away to your own kingdom of clouds and gentle surrealism, within a world, which may no longer be dreamlike. It's a promise of luxury, beyond imagination. The soul of this collection rests in the majestic crowns of kings and queens, past and present.